

"Young Ideas" in Hungary awarded two schools of Bergamo

Competition. At the end of the competition in Kaposvar, the local high school and Lussana Engim of Valbrembo they won the sections dedicated to communication

COOKED SERGIO

From Bergamo all'Ungheria and back in his pocket with two wins out of four in the challenge to riservata high school kids, but especially with the joint signatures of middle Europe institutions, which at the end of 12th edition of the competition "Young Ideas" have under-written a Memorandum of Understanding establishing the start of an international cooperation intended born to involve an increasing number of schools and institutions around the themes of Europe.

This is certainly the most important result for the binding Bergamo, author of an initiative that with the passage of time has been able to exceed the national borders, contango do this year on the participation of the schools from Albania, Latvia, Poland, Rumania, Hungary and Spain.

"The signing of this document - says the president of Young Ideas, Giampietro Beniac - has established an international network, creating the elevator is designed to "Young Ideas for Europe", which they can participate, in addition to schools, even the institutions. It will be a tool of international trade and an opportunity to maintain links and to build training initiatives for RA gazzi and for teachers, cooperate in ration with the European Commission and aimed to raise awareness, young people on the theme of Europe. "A further leap in quality for the international competition, which this year has lived his final tournament Kaposvar, in Hungary, where the STA meri-work recognized tevoli you come from dozens of Italian and foreign institutions. The high school sci-Tifico Lussana of Bergamo and the professional institute Engim of Valbrembo won the first prize respectively in the sections devoted to communication via a web and paper. The juries of experts coordinated by Gigi Corsetti have selected more than 50 elaborate, divided into four categories: both of the other sections, dedicate communication audio-visual and theatrical, were premiate two Polish schools. The argomento, common for all, was "The human being, the guardian of a fragile planet"; an invitation to reflect on the delicate and extremely topical environmental issues. The boys of Lussier (winning the award named in memory of Annamaria Colombelli radi-

The award ceremony of the students of high school Lussana

They) did so by designing a website, through which developed in particular the issues of air pollution and the smaltimen- to waste. The originality of a recipe made with recycled materials, receptive telling you made with ingredients of 'recycling' against mentare Ali-waste, yielded instead to institute students Engim Valbrembo of the award named after Robur Onlus Solidarity of Ver- Dellino.

Starring the finals, although not in the race, were also 30 students of hotel and tourist addresses dell'isti-Institute Galli Bergamo, Han- no lent them for the reception of guests and service Kapo- svar during final event (performed by actor Mi- Marini claws), and for the management of the gala dinner.

Siad, Montello, Magris and Robi environment are Bergamasca masche companies that have supported the project. And now you think the Pros sima edition whose theme, "Faces migrants on Europe's roads dreaming of a future", will be the Official cializzato on 21 May next.

© ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

The competition dell'Avis First place school De Amicis

"The gift of blood"

On the top step of the podium the children of Celadina. The Calvin and Savio schools second and third Fourteen winners, seventy participating classes and eighty elaborate on you- but the gift. These are the numbers that have marked the last edition of "The Gift of the gue sanction", the competition promoted by Avis Municipal Bergamo now in its eleventh edition. The project, undertaken in collaboration with the Provincial pro- Avis Bergamo and features a group of Avis Celadina, as always dedicated to the memory of the teacher Dawn Negri, but primary godmother dell'Avis Celadina. The contest, open to studen- you the city and the province of Bergamo, has seen the participation of over 70 classes, 45 primary schools and 25 secondary schools of First Instance that, through processed and cartels Ioni, They expressed tivity creation with an inspirational message to the gift, key concept throughout the world Avis.

The most representative awards of elabo- ratification took place yesterday at the auditorium of the Casa del Giovane of Bergamo, at the presence of al-social policies of the City of Bergamo Maria Carolina Marchesi, the Professor Paola Crippa Office scola- stico territorial and Artemio Trapattoni, President Avis

The award ceremony

Provincial Bergamo. "This competition - said pre-dent - reaches every year many students from across the province, to which we can send a message Im- the very important: understanding the value of the gift, the one dell'aiutarsi il-al-tro and to have a look of CU-ra against those who are less well than we do. "The expected contribution was won by the sections A and B of the fifth grade of the Institute of the De Amicis Cella- dina, thanks to an elaborate con- holding a message loud and clear: "Giving is love of life, because the blood can welded vare lives. "In second place both the scenes of primary school Calvino Colognola, while the third place are positioned the fifth classes A and B of the primary school of Savio Boccaleone. All winners were given vouchers for the purchase of books ac-

Laura Arrighetti

Open day in the fourth University Students and parents in the classroom

Students at St. Augustine in the classroom magna Bedolis PHOTOS

Sant'Agostino

A day designed to explain to the students how to orient in the choice of superior

Three hundred students of the fourth class (upper Bergamo province and schools but also other neighboring cities) and about 70 gers. Are the numbers of par- ticipants Open Day DEL- the University of Bergamo de- DICATO students that the next year will have to choose that path univer- sity undertake. The Open Day, now in its third year, was held Saturday morn- ing from 9 to 13.

The day began nel- the Aula Magna at the site of St. Augustine in the Upper Town, where he intervened regularly proret- Orientation, professor Marco Lazzari, which heads the university open day organized together with the ' office guidance, co-commanded by Elena Gotti.

"Let us encounter this - says Professor Lazzari - to begin to orient the choice of route univer- sity. Let us clarify the reason that can push them to go in university What are the arguments to be taken into account to choose. It is a sort of advice for in- stradarli. "Speech which is then to STA-depth with students from several guidance assistants, while parents, summoned for the primary but once in university, have been explained by some teachers who could be their role in accompanying the RA gazzi in the choice. "It's a do Mo- so that parents di- dime our allies in clarity for the boys", said the vice-rector.

At 10.30 all have shifted to the headquarters in Via Pignolo, Baroni in the new college, where meetings were held for each of the seven departments such by presenting the professions to which you can get through the different degree programs. "We an- that brought testimonies of former students and professionals in different fields", specifies the pro-rector Orientation. At day partici- pated twenty professorial re representing di- compartments of the university, in addition to office staff orientation and a dozzi- na 150 hours students.

Alessio Hollyhock

Degrees in Economics UNIBG the top in Italy

The ranking

The portal Education Around, puts orobico University ranks second in Italy after Padua

The website dedicated to the academic world, "Edu cation Around" has compiled a list of degree courses of the mico-Statistical Recherche industry taking into account the state of Italian universities. The ranking has a focus purely incentive trato input into work on the prepara- tion offer and internationalization sull'internazio- graduation. Guide ranking the univer- ty of Padua, 309 studen- you graduate, an employment rate of 89.2% and a net salary of 1,369 euro in output. In the second posi- tion the University of Bergamasca mo, "which builds its success - is nell'anali- law portal - thanks to a very effective degree, one of the highest employment rates in the standings, at 90.1%, one aligned to the estimated slope Uni- sity of the podium, with a much higher percentage of stu- dents who have undergone a traineeship (57, 7%). "From Mi- gliorare however, compared to other universities in the high rankings, the " internationalization. "Third place went to the square the University of Trento, the so- lution in Italy for net salary. Rounding out the podium "four" the University of Pavia who graduated tively approximate 50 students of Padua, but lost 4.3 percentage points on their employment.

At Polaresco board games make the full

BERGAME

Two days dedicated to boardgames, role and chess. Once enthusiasts from out of town

Twenty tables uncler spa- Polaresco available to canned gamers, role and chess. It is the eighth edition of the manifest BERGAME station, which was held on Saturday and Sunday, ganizzata or- association Ludiverso, a subsidiary of Tana of Bergamo Goblin. "The aim - explains the president, Adelaide Tomasi - was spreading among citizens play smart and we seem to have succeeded, as only on Saturday came to play 250 people." Present ten prove- nienti associations from Bergamo and the province but also from other cities, as well as a score of authors of games and manufacturers of prototypes, bloggers and youtuber. A set- Tantina exhibitors, with a hundred games at the disposal of. For participants an- that the opportunity to exchange old games to barat- service to.

BERGAME Bedolis PHOTOS

AM